TRIBUNA JURIDICA

Juridical Tribune - Tribuna Juridică makes international exchanges with the following journals:

European Review of Public Law

The European Review of Public Law (ERPL) was established in 1989 to create an international forum for analysis and discussion of issues in the development of constitutional and administrative law in Europe. This Journal is published by the European Public Law Organization and is a quarterly publication. The ERPL examines a wide range of issues that relate to the European Union, the European Convention on Human Rights, the national public law and practices, as well as to their mutual interaction and influence. In addition, the Review covers other jurisdictions that interplay with the European Public Law systems and/or offer relevant comparative insights. The journal is indexed in international databases and catalogs.

Central and Eastern European Legal Studies \(CEELS\)

The Central and Eastern European Legal Studies (CEELS) is published by the European Public Law Organization and is a biannual publication. The aim of this review is to give the opportunity to academics coming from CEE countries and also to academics from other countries specializing in the law field, to come together and exchange views on law issues of these countries. The Board of Editors is composed by renown academics from countries of the Central and Eastern Europe as well as from Western European countries, all of them specialized in the area of law. The journal is indexed in international databases and catalogs.
